

BARONS Jewelers Brings San Francisco Bay Area Customers Exclusive Bridal Event!

Located in Dublin, California, BARONS is proud to announce that on Friday, March 3rd and Saturday, March 4th, they will be hosting an exclusive Brilliant Bridal Extravaganza sales event. Spotlighting some of today's top designers, the Brilliant Bridal Extravaganza will include exclusive ring collections, a team of skilled bridal jewelry professionals, and an amazing tax-free sales promotion on selected engagement rings and wedding bands for both men and women.

Featuring expanded collections from the designers at Simon G., A. Jaffe, Michael M., and ArtCarved, the Brilliant Bridal Extravaganza at BARONS is meant to assist couples with finding the perfect engagement ring or wedding band while saving some serious money along the way. Additionally, with one of the largest collections of men's wedding bands in the San Francisco Bay Area, the staff at BARONS is confident that they'll have ring styles for everyone.

In addition to these exclusive bridal jewelry pieces, BARONS has promised to pay the sales tax on all Simon G., A. Jaffe, Michael M., and ArtCarved engagement rings and wedding bands purchased during the March 3rd and March 4th event. (Please note: the tax-free promotion does not apply to a center stone purchase.)

When asked about the Brilliant Bridal Extravaganza, Ronnie Heller, president of BARONS, commented, "this event is truly one of the best times to get an engagement ring or wedding band from BARONS. Not only will we have an amazing, expanded collection, but we'll also pay the tax on any A. Jaffe, Simon G., Michael M., or ArtCarved engagement ring or wedding band that is bought during this event!"
