Smyth Jewelers Hosts Mother's Day Trunk Show With Celebrated Jewelry Designer Alex Woo

Visit the retailer's Timonium location this Saturday for an extended inventory of Alex Woo personalized charm jewelry, as well as other touching Mother's Day gifts from the largest jewelry store in Maryland.

MARYLAND, May 7, 2019 (Newswire.com) - As the largest jewelry retailer in Maryland, Smyth Jewelers is the greater Baltimore area's first choice for anyone looking for the perfect Mother's Day gift. To sweeten the deal, their Timonium showroom will host a highly-anticipated trunk show this weekend to make gift shopping for Mom even easier.

On May 11th from 10AM-6PM, visitors to Smyth Jewelers in Timonium can shop an extended collection of Alex Woo's charm jewelry and pick out pieces that highlight the best qualities of that special woman in their life.

Alex Woo herself will also be present at the event to help families pick out something that Mom will cherish for years to come. Customers are encouraged to bring the little ones along; the retailer will provide a card-making and jewelry box-decorating station for the kids to make this Mother's Day gift a truly personalized one.

An award-winning designer known for her sculptural jewelry charms, Alex Woo's long list of clients include celebrities, editors, and influencers in the fashion industry. In addition to collecting accolades like being named New York Business' 40 Under 40, Woo and her work has earned features in prominent magazines like InStyle and W. For even more proof of her jewelry's celebrated status, look no further than Carrie Bradshaw's "c" necklace made popular in The Carrie Diaries.

All those interested in seeing Alex Woo's prolific work in person should mark their calendars for Smyth Jewelers' trunk show event. Give Mom the day off this Saturday and join the Smyth Jewelers team for a Mother's Day shopping experience made simple!
