Following Robbery Attempt, David Hayman Jewellers Pays Tribute to Local Police Officers With Free Silicone Band

The break-in, which occurred this past weekend, coincides with a promotion the jewelry retailer will be hosting for all local police officers and sheriffs next month.

YORBA LINDA, California, June 26, 2019 (Newswire.com) -

Starting on Tuesday, July 9th, David Hayman Jewellers will give away free "Blue Line" silicone rings to sheriffs and police officers in the community.

To claim their silicone band, officers must visit the retailer's store in Yorba Linda and show their credentials. After that, an associate will measure the finger the ring will be worn on and present the officer with their new band.

Following a recent robbery attempt at their store, David Hayman Jewellers is especially grateful for the local police force.

After realizing that their power had been cut on Sunday, owner David Hayman and his family contacted the Orange County Sheriff's Department. Jewelers in the area had been experiencing a series of break-ins and robberies, and Hayman feared that they would be next. Deputies planned a stakeout, and successfully caught two of the three burglars responsible for the attempted robbery.

The staff of David Hayman Jewellers is proud to be a member of the Yorba Linda community, and are grateful to the sheriff's department for its quick and decisive action this past weekend. Just as the police officers and sheriffs protect the community, they hope that these Blue Line silicone bands protect their hands while they are out in the field.

This offer is in-store only and will run until the end of the July, while supplies last.
