Good Old Gold Celebrates the Past and the Future With Two Upcoming Jewelry Events

The jewelry retailer's Wedding Band Sale runs now through the end of the month. Afterward, stop by their estate jewelry sale in November for one-off jewelry pieces and trinkets.

MASSAPEQUA PARK, New York, October 23, 2019

(Newswire.com) - With the events Good Old Gold is hosting in the weeks ahead, the jeweler offers devoted customers and new shoppers alike an opportunity to celebrate the future and look back at the past.

Good Old Gold is now holding their annual Wedding Band Sale event. From now until the end of the month, shoppers can take 30% off all in-stock wedding bands and 25% off special orders. That means couples heading down the aisle in the coming months can save on their dream rings from popular designers like Gabriel & Co., Benchmark, and Beverley K.

Please note that there will be an additional cost for sizing in-stock wedding bands. All special orders are final sale, and there will be no layaway available during this promotion.

Additionally, the Long Island retailer will also hold an estate jewelry sale at the beginning of next month. From November 1st to November 3rd, visitors can delight in a diverse array of estate, vintage, and antique jewelry as well as costume jewelry, crystal, flatware, delicate porcelain figures and other one-of-a-kind treasures.

Each day of the Estate event, the first 10 customers in line will receive a $10 gift certificate to be used on the day of the event. All sales made during this event are final, and there will be no layaways on event items.
