

Southall Travel Acquires a New Office Location in Mayfair, London

Southall Travel Group has bought a new £17 million state-of-the-art office in Mayfair, London. The company has enjoyed phenomenal growth during past few years and needed much larger space than its current headquarters in Buckinghamshire to accommodate its expanding business and team. Southall Travel's management team is due to move here in the third quarter of 2016.

London, 25 January 2016: Southall Travel Group, a leading flights and holidays company, has acquired a large office in the exclusive commercial district of Mayfair, London. The company intends to move its corporate headquarters to this new six-storey facility on Dover Street in the third quarter of 2016. Southall Travel acquired the state-of-the-art office facility after a three-year search and with an investment of £17 million. The travel company currently maintains headquarters at Iver, Buckinghamshire.

The relocation of headquarters is part of the company's long-term expansion strategy. Southall Travel Group has witnessed accelerated growth over the past few years and a much larger space was needed to accommodate the expansion. The new office building in London will provide more flexible and accessible venue for meeting and conference facilities with the firm's business partners and suppliers.

During the financial year ending 2015, Southall Travel Group's turnover has grown by £65 million to £420 million.

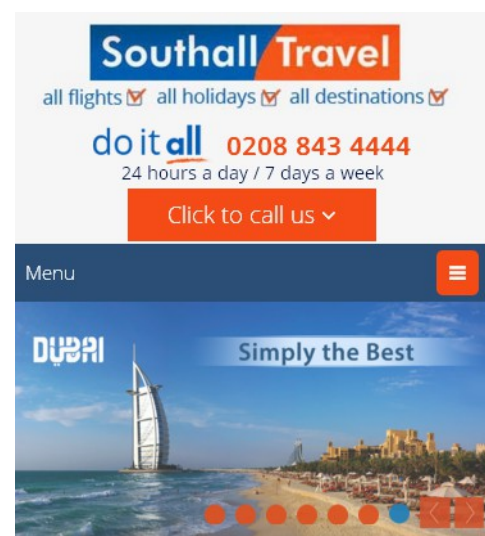

The privately-owned company had been looking for a new office location since 2012 and with this new acquisition the company can now progress with its exciting new business plans.

Mayfair, an exclusive West London district, is home to major corporate headquarters and several embassies, including the United States Embassy. Mayfair boasts London's largest concentration of luxury hotels and many upscale restaurants.

Southall Travel's new office location in this prime commercial area is a prestigious acquisition to provide a long-term headquarters for the travel company.

Southall Travel is a leading industry brand popular for affordable travel in leisure and business segments across global destinations. A multi-award winning firm, Southall Travel was the highest ranked travel agency and tour operator in the 11th Annual Sunday Times Top Track 250 list of UK companies.

Southall Travel Group Managing Director, Kuljinder Bahia, said: "I'm extremely pleased that a suitable office has been acquired for our growing team. The location in Dover Street, Mayfair, is convenient for our corporate customers, our key supplier meetings and will provide a suitable address for our headquarters for years to come."
