

of GM & HR leaders are still using Excel to manage their programs stated that the cost is the main barrier to implementing technology of GM & HR leaders stated that automation of processes was their number one priority

Over 80% of respondents found downstream integration with partners either important or critical

AI or VR is yet to take-off with only 3% of respondents utilizing these types of technologies

A total of 71% of respondents valued the cost vs actuals side of predictive analytics

Click here to download the full report