

Denver's Miro Jewelers Announces Opening of 2nd Showroom in Centennial, Colorado

After supplying their community with the absolute best in fine jewelry, Miro Jewelers has announced that in addition to their flagship Denver showroom, they will be opening a second location in Centennial, Colorado.

Scheduled to open in Spring 2017, the Centennial location of Miro Jewelers is slated to be over 5,000 square feet, and will offer the same extraordinary selection of designer bridal jewelry, as well as promises to feature an expanded selection of new and exclusive collections of cutting-edge diamond and gemstone necklaces, earrings, bracelets, fashion rings, and much more.

When asked about the opening of the Centennial showroom, Miro Jewelers' president Nadim Miro said, "at Miro Jewelers our first priority has always been our customer. With the opening of a second location, there is truthfully nothing to stand in the way between our customers finding that perfect piece of bridal or fine fashion jewelry."

Additionally, longtime Miro Jewelers' customer Jennifer Swagert commented that she was "thrilled about the opening of a new store. Miro Jewelers is my absolute jewelry store, and now with a store in Centennial it will be even easier for me to get the great pieces I love."
