Playbux.co, the largest x to earn web3 platform in the world, and iQIYI, the global streaming leader specialized in premium Asian content, are thrilled to announce their groundbreaking collaboration, set to redefine the way audiences engage with digital content. This unprecedented partnership aims to empower individuals worldwide to enjoy premium yet FREE content while unlocking enticing digital prizes through the revolutionary “Watch to Earn” feature.

Everyone is invited to participate in Phase 1 of the Watch to Earn, which is scheduled for June 15.

How do I join?

Watch to Earn is an innovative feature that allows you to earn digital prizes by simply watching content on Playbux.co, this feature combines cutting-edge web3 technology with the exceptional streaming expertise of iQIYI, creating an unparalleled streaming experience.

To begin your “Watch to Earn” journey, you’ll need to create an account on Playbux.co if you haven’t already done so. Follow the registration process on the Playbux.co platform to set up your account securely.

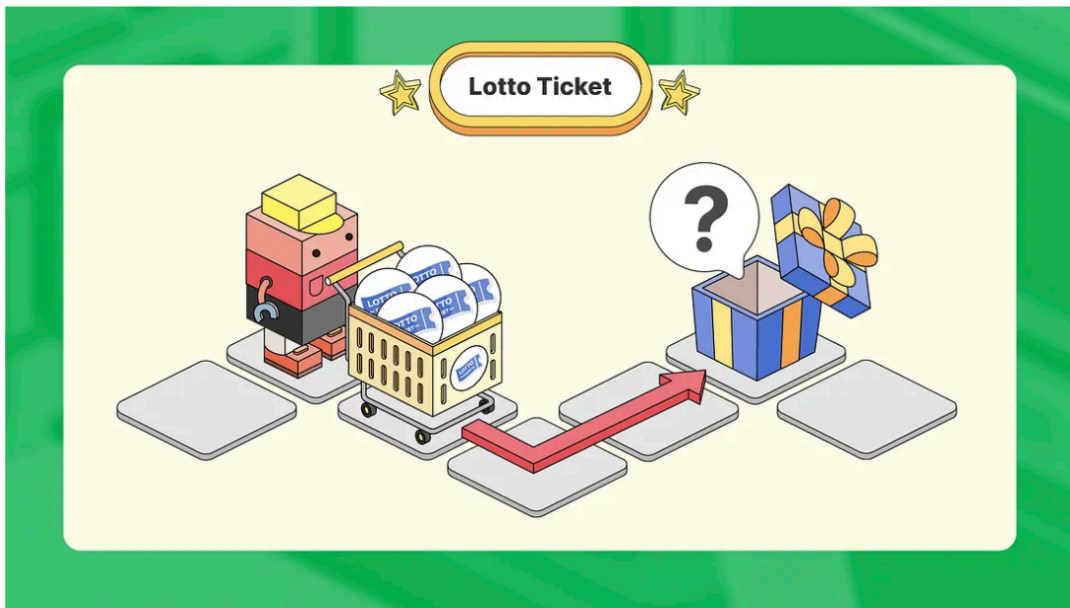

Through the Pre-Alpha page’s banner, users can access Watch to Earn and enter the iQIYI building. Inside the building, the Watch to Earn menu may be accessed from the member counter, and there is also a theater where users can view the contents.

Daily Reward

Once the user's watch time reaches 30 minutes, they can claim daily rewards every day. Users will be capable of winning one daily reward per day, which they can claim at any time. But if the users watch the content for less than 30 minutes, they can continue watching the following day to reach their 30-minute goal and still receive rewards. Lotto tickets, BRK, box pieces, and Watch to Earn-only NFTs are included in the incentives.

Lotto Ticket

Playbux's new lottery ticket mechanic will be a crucial resource in the following phase. The lottery ticket cannot be bought, but it can be obtained through an event like Watch to Earn. In the future, lotto tickets will be utilized in lottery pools and Lucky Trees to earn a variety of rewards, including BUSD, BRK, NFTs, and much more. You can earn from the prize pool worth over $100,000 every month!

Theater

Users can watch the content that iQIYI has chosen inside the theater. iQIYI offers a wide range of shows and movies that are eligible for the Watch to Earn feature. Users can choose the content they want to watch, which is typically the first episode of the chosen series or movies. The next reward will be available to claim in the daily reward page when 30 minutes have passed.

Upcoming : Phase 2

The upcoming phase introduces the VIP feature, offering exclusive benefits to VIP members. Users only need to watch content for 15 minutes to claim their daily rewards and gain access to the lottery pool and Lucky Trees by using their accumulated tickets to progress to the next stage.

Conclusion

This instruction manual will walk you through the exciting experience of earning captivating digital prizes while immersing themselves in the diverse content library of iQIYI. This is only the beginning. The following stage will be completed with VIP privileges and lottery pools. Enjoy your favorite shows and movies while earning captivating digital prizes through Playbox.co. Happy watching!
