

March is Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month

No Butts, No Excuses...

GET SCREENED

Colorectal cancer is the third most common cancer diagnosed in both men and women in the United States. However, it is up to 90% curable if detected early.

Fifty is the recommended age to get screened for colorectal cancer, and most insurance plans cover colorectal screening tests.

For more information, call 720-225-2273.