Long Jewelers Voted "Best of the Beach" Jewelry Store for the 29th Time

Additionally, the jewelry retailer is staying busy this month with two events for fine jewelry aficionados and luxury watch lovers alike.

VIRGINIA BEACH, Virginia, September 9, 2019

(Newswire.com) - Although September has long been considered a slow month for many businesses, Long Jewelers of Virginia Beach has much to celebrate this year. Between winning yet another local award and being qualified to win a nationwide contest, things aren't slowing down anytime soon for this jewelry retailer!

Virginian Pilot Readers Vote Long Jewelers "Best of the Beach"

For the 29th time in 30 years, readers of the local publication the Virginian Pilot voted the retailer as one of the best businesses in the local area. Long Jewelers was ranked number one in the Fine Jewelry category, which certainly speaks to the company's dedication to quality jewelry brands and customer service.

Long Jewelers Qualifies for Seiko's Coutura Car Contest

On September 19th, a customer from Long Jewelers will have a chance to win a Chevrolet Camaro -- dubbed the "Coutura Car" -- custom-designed to look like the Seiko Jimmie Johnson Special Edition Coutura watch. The customer, along with 19 other qualifiers, will visit the Gas Monkey Garage in Dallas, Texas where one of them will take home the slick-looking set of wheels.

The contest celebrates the 15th anniversary of Seiko's Coutura watch line, which was inspired by the design of the Chevy Camaro. This time around, however, life imitates art, and that much is plain to see when one looks at the deep blue, yellow, and jet black colorway of the Coutura Car.

Visit Long Jewelers' Facebook page on Thursday, September 19th to find out if Long Jewelers' customer takes home the car!

Annual Effy Trunk Show

If diamond-studded jewelry is more your thing, no fear! On September 19th, Long Jewelers will also host their annual Effy trunk show event. From 10AM to 7PM, shoppers can delight in an extended selection of jewelry from the popular designer.
