Will you choose to stay in the comfort of your own home, or move to a retirement community? Expert speakers will give their perspectives and share tools and resources to make good choices and avoid pitfalls for yourself and your loved ones.

Best selling author Fritzi Gros-Daillon, CEO and Founder of Household Guardians, will discuss ways to stay in your own home by employing smart and affordable changes. In addition, Julie Derry, a Senior Care Consultant with Care Patrol, will provide guidance on how to clearly navigate the maze of over 650 retirement housing options in San Diego county.

The session is designed to be interactive and provide practical, actionable information. We invite you and your friends to attend this event at no cost but seating is limited, please RSVP.

*Continental breakfast will be served. All attendees will receive a copy of the book "Grace and Grit" by Fritzi Gros- Daillon.
