Safa Jewelers Reveals New Stock of Popular and Limited Edition Oris Watches

The exclusive watch models available at the Edison-based showroom include some of the Swiss brand's highly coveted lines as well as some limited edition luxury timepieces

EDISON, New Jersey, July 9, 2018 (Newswire.com) - For those looking for the latest in luxury watches, make sure to stop by Safa Jewelers for some of the most sought-after styles from the Swiss watchmaker Oris. The fine jewelry and watch retailer, which is based in Edison, New Jersey, has debuted their new stock of Oris watches at their showroom in the Menlo Park Mall.

In addition to showcasing some of the watchmaker's popular timepiece models, Safa Jewelers will also carry some of the brand's limited edition watches as well. A few of the notable pieces that are currently available at the showroom include the limited edition Aquis Hammerhead, the Diver 65, and the limited edition Big Crown 1917.

The limited edition version of the Aquis Hammerhead is notable for the line's dedication to hammerhead shark conservation efforts.

According to Jérôme Delafosse, a French diver and an Oris ambassador, hammerhead sharks are on the brink of extinction and may even disappear within the next 40 years if no action is taken to help them. To help with the cause, Oris will donate a portion of all limited edition sales of this watch to Pelagios Kakunjá, a non-profit dedicated to studying sharks and other migratory marine animals.

Additionally, Safa Jewelers will feature celebrated timepiece models like the Diver 65 and the limited edition Big Crown 1917. The latest iterations of these watches bring back a wave of nostalgia with the way they replicate Oris' designs from decades past, but updated with modern touches and watchmaking technologies.
