Lost Christmas Song from Rudolph finally Available

Lilly, GA— December 1, 2020 — Miss Kitty, the resident cat at Lilly Schoolhouse announced immediate availability of the sheet music, There's Always Tomorrow, from Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, by Johnny Marks.

This song has been out of print and unavailable for over 40 years.

This is the original song from Christmas genius Johnny Marks. The song had a limited run in 1964 and a second run in the 1970's. As the song that Clarice sings to Rudolph, the music was always seen as a "filler" song for the made for technicolor movie. Johnny Marks wrote many Christmas songs including his most famous song, Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer.

Write the cat instead of Santa!

The feline in residence, Miss Kitty, is writing back anyone who loves the music as much as she does, because "There is Always Tomorrow" to do the things you put off during COVID-19. The Lilly Schoolhouse was built around 1912.
