Smyth Jewelers to Host Simon G. Trunk Show and Restyle Event This Month

In addition to shopping an extended selection of the jewelry brand's popular and rare pieces, attendees will have a chance to meet founder Simon Ghanimian himself.

TIMONIUM and ELLICOTT CITY, Maryland, October 7, 2019

(Newswire.com) - This month, fine jewelry lovers can visit Smyth Jewelers for their Simon G. Trunk Show and Restyle Event.

The event, which takes place on October 17th at the retailer's Timonium store and October 18-19 at their Ellicott City location, will give visitors an opportunity to browse Simon G.'s extended inventory filled with bridal, rare gemstone, and diamond jewelry pieces. Customers will also receive a free gift with each Simon G. purchase made during the trunk show (while supplies last).

The founder of the fine jewelry brand, Simon Ghanimian, will make an appearance at Smyth Jewelers' Timonium store on the 17th and the Ellicott showroom on the 18th. Fans of the brand can take advantage of this rare opportunity to meet the designer in person and ask him any questions they may have.

Additionally, those who have old jewelry or gemstones they don't wear can bring them in during this three-day event. The expert goldsmiths at Smyth Jewelers will be more than happy to breathe new life into them by turning them into a new custom-designed piece.

Book an appointment for the event by sending an email to info@smythjewelers.com or visiting their contact page.
