'ZombieCON' the Movie Announces Special Preview Screening at Los Angeles Comic Con

Highly Anticipated, Anime-Inspired Action-Adventure 'ZombieCON' Follows Cosplayers Stuck in a Zombie Apocalypse of Anime Proportions

LOS ANGELES, October 9, 2018 (Newswire.com) - Los Angeles Comic Con and Big Squid Productions have teamed up to bring movie-loving attendees and otaku an experience like never before.

On Saturday, Oct. 27, fans are invited to catch a special preview screening of the unreleased feature film ZombieCON - "cosplayers stuck in zombie apocalypse after turning all assholes in the world into zombies" - as well as a panel Q&A with the film stars and moviemaking team.

With two top-tier film festivals having already recognized working copies of ZombieCON, the film merges high art and indie action thriller. Exploring the battle between good and evil within oneself, ZombieCON is a roller coaster of emotions and a testament to the power of friendship and heart. Produced for well under $1 million by a first-time feature film director, co-writers, lead actor and producing team, ZombieCON truly redefines what is possible in front of and behind the camera - looking to be 2018-2019's The Terminator.

The lead cast and filmmaking team, affectionately dubbed "the Big Squids," have traveled to numerous SoCal conventions and cosplay events, exhibiting props, creating cosplay videos and introducing new friends and fans to the upcoming ZombieCON film.

Space is limited, so arrive early to secure seating. Promo items and exclusive swag will be given in a variety of ways over the course of the weekend, whether at the ZombieCON booth or during screening and panel itself.
