Webcor and Reaume Richardson Form Strategic Alliance to Expand General Contracting Services in Southern California and Beyond

Webcor and Reaume Richardson are pleased to announce a strategic alliance to provide general contracting and construction management services for a variety of projects across the Southern California area.

The strategic alliance combines Reaume Richardson's long-standing history and client relationships in the Los Angeles adaptive reuse market with the large-scale resources of Webcor. This alliance will allow Reaume Richardson to serve their clients with ground-up projects in the $100M+ range and for Webcor to leverage the historic, adaptive reuse acumen of the Reaume Richardson team.

"We have amazing client relationships built from 20+ years of work in downtown LA and beyond," says Bryson Reaume, founder and CEO of Reaume Richardson. "We are excited to collaborate with Webcor, an industry leader with a great reputation, as our company and projects continue to grow. The respective strengths of both companies can only improve as we work together to take on projects of all sizes."

"We are thrilled with our newly developed relationship with Reaume Richardson," says Gust Soteropulos, senior vice president and general manager of Webcor's Los Angeles operations. "The unique energy and innovation of both companies are sure to disrupt the construction industry in short order."
