SILVERMILE ENTERTAINMENT

Silvermile Ltd, also known as Silvermile Entertainment, is developer and publisher of high end video games focused on virtual reality, augmented reality and mobile platforms.

Silvermile is the creator of the flagship titles Knockout Arena, SpellFish VR and The Pocket Pandas for Google Daydream, Oculus, mobile, console and desktop platforms.

The company was founded by Juhana Kotilainen with over 10 years experience in game industry, who was Head of Angry Birds Business and Marketing, and worked together on projects with 20th Century Fox, Dreamworks, Sony Pictures and Activision to name few.

Silvermile is currently expanding to grow the flagship franchises globally to become one of the major developer and publishers of virtual reality, augmented reality and mobile content.
